Additional charges laid against Calgary man

Calgary... The Alberta Law Enforcement Response Team's Internet Child Exploitation Unit (ICE) has laid 14 additional charges against a Calgary man who was charged earlier this year with several child pornography offences. Four children have been identified to date.

Evidence obtained during forensic examination of computers seized in April have resulted in Roderick "Kyle" Janssen, 35, being charged with sexual assault (x3), sexual interference (x3), invitation to sexual touching (x3), making child pornography (x3), and voyeurism (x2). These are in addition to the four offences he was charged with last month.

Staff Sergeant Steve Lorne will be available for comments Friday, May 27, between 10 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. at 403-428-4901.

The investigation continues. Anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Brookes at 403-428-4902.

ICE investigates the sexual exploitation of children through the Internet and works to reduce harm through public education and prevention programs.

ALERT is an umbrella organization established by the Government of Alberta to bring together the province's most sophisticated law enforcement resources to tackle serious and organized crime. Close to 400 municipal police, RCMP and sheriffs work for ALERT.

Background (released April 13, 2011): The Southern Alberta Internet Child Exploitation (ICE) Unit, in collaboration with an undercover operation led by the FBI - Philadelphia Division, have arrested a Calgary resident and charged him with several child pornography offences. Roderick "Kyle" Janssen, 35, has been charged with possession of child pornography, accessing child pornography, making child pornography, and distributing child pornography. Additional charges are pending. He was arrested on Tuesday, April 12, and remains in custody.
